PRESS RELEASE

Sacramento—"Galena Street East" California's Young Performing Ambassadors was asked by the Governor's Office to perform at the swearing in ceremonies for Governor Schwarzenegger on Friday, January 5th at the Sacramento Memorial Auditorium. The two numbers were "It's California" and "Light On A Distant Hill". Galena Street East is celebrating their 35th anniversary and is headed by Jeri and Richard Clinger. Choreographer is Ron Cisneros. This year the Clingers have been awarded, "Best Direction for Young Singers and Dancers" by Sacramento Magazine.

Galena Street East will perform an hour long production, River City Revue at 3 p.m. at the Arts in River Park festival at Scottish Rite Masonic Center on Saturday, May 12th. The event is free to the public. See www.artsinriverpark.org.

Auditions will take place in June 2007 and those successful in the audition will be invited to perform for the Governor's Tree Lighting ceremony in December. For more information, contact at Galena Street East at galenastreeteast.org.
