In "Capture The Magic" the Galena Street East performers, celebrate their cultural roots of Europe, South America, Russia, Africa, and Asia, in their song and dance. Music, set in motion, unifies us. There are no language barriers when we dance together to the rhythm of our cultural heritage.

They capture the magic of the 20's, 40's, 60's 80's and the driving sounds of today's music scene. They capture the magic of our hearts, home and family. They sing of the magic that a peaceful nation and world would bring us all. Directed by Jeri and Richard Clinger with Choreographer Ron Cisneros. Galena Street East features young performers from the age of 14 to 19.
